

The Ford International Weekly

THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

By the Year One Dollar

Dearborn, Michigan, September 18, 1920

Single
Copy Five Cents

YOSEMITE FALLS, YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

—Courtesy of the National Park Service.
Photo by A. C. Pittsburg.

The Upper Fall measures 1,430 feet, as high as nine Niagaras. The Lower Fall measures 320 feet. The total drop from crest to river, including intermediate cascades, is half a mile.

Photograph selected for THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT
by National Park Service, Department of the Interior.